

MODERN ART

Color and form dominate this art-filled abode, revitalized by energy, movement and emotion. Look to abstract and geometric motifs, as well as Mondrian and Rorschach inkblot-inspired offerings, to craft a masterful contemporary composition.

BY TRACY BULLA

Dividing Line No. 2 from Wendy Constance uses color and shape to create a dynamic, visually harmonious artwork in this abstract photograph, part of a limited edition of 11.

Brilliantly hued bottles combine form and function from Marbly Goods, infusing an intriguing, fluid perspective.

Spiky iron spheres exude a contemporary, futuristic sensibility from Modern Day Accents. Finished in antique gold ($48 to $66).

The spoked Douglas Y console from Gilded Home by John McClen transforms any abode with a sculptural, artisan aesthetic, showcasing hand-hammered Y supports in polished nickel set within a dark walnut frame ($8,995).