

A HANDFUL OF HARTS

The Cabinet Landscapes of William Hart (1823–1894)

A Select Viewing: March 7–April 25, 2009

William Hart (1823–1894), Fall Scenery, Oil on panel, 9½ x 14½ inches, Signed and dated 1872, lower left

“His [William Hart’s] latest and most popular cabinet landscapes, which may be found in almost all the principal private collections in the Atlantic cities, consist of a central piece of forest divided by a running stream . . . gleam with sunshine from a background sun. These productions always meet with a ready sale.

Their author is very industrious and persevering.” —G.W. Sheldon, American Painters, 1879
