Atlanta professional photographer Phil Bekker will cover all the considerations necessary to achieve a successful outcome. What do you think about, and do, to create a compelling image? We all have our own conscious and unconscious methods and approaches - some meticulous and detailed, and some haphazard and spontaneous. What works and why?

About Phil Bekker

Born and raised in Rhodesia (Zimbabwe), Phil studied photography in both South Africa and England and moved to the Unites States in 1986, where he achieved his MFA. He has up until recently, taught at the college level for over 30 years as lead instructor and also department director, with his students achieving more awards than any other photography college in the United States.

He has been practicing in his own commercial photography business since 1984 and his clients have included; Pierre Cardin, Mercedes Benz, Coca Cola, Georgia Power, Southern Sun Hotels, San Destin Resorts, Playtex, Corporate Aircraft Partners, Unilever, and Sherwin Williams, to name a few.

Phil's personal work is in private and corporate collections worldwide and has appeared in many awards publications, including over 20 of Graphis's 'Photography', 'Poster' 'Nudes', 'Collections' and 'New Talent' (interviews and cover quotes) annuals. He had been represented by the Fay Gold Gallery in Atlanta for nineteen years, The Works Gallery in Costa Mesa, California and more recently Hagedorn Foundation Gallery in Atlanta. He is actively involved in the photographic community and frequently gives presentations of his work and judges competitions.

Phil's website is www;bekker.com and you can follow him on Instagram (Phil Bekker Photography as well as on Facebook (both Phil Bekker Photo Educator and Phil Bekker Photography)
