Faces OF WAILEA

On the beaches, in the restaurants, at the portes cochères and everywhere you look, you'll find welcome expressed in many ways.

Faces OF WAILEA

They are the hands, hearts and smiles that turn the wheels of Wailea. They are those who greet you when you arrive and say a hui hou when you leave.

The sun isn't the only source of sunshine in Wailea. It's around every corner, everywhere.
