

ON THE WAY TO KNOW

First glances,

    Hello words,

        Exchanged like county fair recipes.

Caution-clad lip-smiles meet their equals,

    Like 2 generals,

        Silent eyelid slots take more than give,

        Like Sunday baskets,

Coolness cover cracks,

    Very purposefully, Carefully,

        Like a report-card-peek.

Testing words,

    To find out more than they reveal,

Like blind can to cross street,

    Silent eye-smiles-signals,

        Like stoplights in morning fog.

Coolness cover cracks,

    Purposefully,

        Like a brave report-card-peek.

Discovering words to self-pieces traded,

    Like first valentines,

        Eyelid slots unclose,

    Touch parts behind them,

Like summertime screen doors.

On the way to know...
