

selfish--he said that i'm selfish if selfish is striving to be as much as i can be,

to make the most of me, if selfish is making the most of my time, making me into a better person, a better friend,

a better woman,

if selfish is stretching my talents,
my skills,
my energies
more and more a bit beyond their limits each day, if selfish is not letting permanently immovable objects stand in my way,

if selfish is never allowing a person or project to pass without giving 150% of myself,

if selfish is refusing to succumb to societal barriers, if selfish is defying the "normal", if selfish is refusing to accept anything less than the best,

then,

thank God,

i'm DAMN SELFISH. . .

(you, too??)
