

LOOKBOOK MODELS

What You Can Expect

Paid lookbook modeling or catalog modeling contains nudity (dressing room / implied / artistic).

- Must first qualify and process as a [Fitting Model, see FITTING MODEL, What You Can Expect]
- No age requirement
- Work from “in-studio” or “on-location”
- Target measurement requirements [sizes 0-8]
- 10 hour shifts
- Pay starts @ $25/hour, with yearly performance-based raises and includes a 15-minute break every hour.
- Duties include: posing in clothing, lingerie, swimwear and heeled footwear for extended periods of time

1. Please wear loose, non-constricting clothing to your shoot. Do not arrive in undergarments, shape wear, and/or swimwear; which may leave marks and bruising of the skin. This is not a desire effect, so please leave them at home or in your bag to change into after the session/appointment.
2. Before the shoot you will be given the opportunity to ask questions. There are no stupid questions; if you have any, ask them. The model- release contract will be explained to you. Again, if you have any questions, please ask them.
3. During the breaks, I will provide a bathrobe, slippers and refreshments.
4. After the photo shoot you will be paid and will be asked to sign a release. Signing the release is a condition of being paid.
5. After signing the release, you will be given a questionnaire. This gives you the opportunity to critique me as a photographer.
6. Ten (10) or more edited photos can be purchase at cost (10 USD) per image. Printed photos are also available for purchase. All other photos will be considered exclusive publishable photos, unless (see clause 7.)
7. Modeling in exchange for prints/CD/DVD/Blu-Ray/Thumb Drive/Hard Drive, etc., may be negotiated (usually not for payment), but I will retain the negatives and the copyright.
