1. Please wear loose, non-constricting clothing to your shoot. Do not arrive in undergarments, shape wear and/or swimwear; which may leave marks and bruising of the skin. This is not a desire effect, so please leave them at home or in your bag to change into after the session/appointment.
2. Before the shoot you will be given the opportunity to ask questions. There are no stupid questions; if you have any, ask them. The model- release contract will be explained to you. Again, if you have any questions, please ask them.
3. As a warm-up, we may do a motion photographed interview on nude modeling and other general questions. A casting-style undressing (front profile, side profile, etc.) really helps “ease into the session”.
4. During the breaks, I will provide a bathrobe, slippers and refreshments.
5. After the photo shoot you will be paid and will be asked to sign a release. Signing the release is a condition of being paid.
6. After signing the release, you will be given a questionnaire. This gives you the opportunity to critique me as a photographer.
7. Ten (10) or more edited photos can be purchased at cost (10 USD) per image. Printed photos are also available for purchase. All other photos will be considered exclusive publishable photos, unless (see clause 8.)
8. Modeling in exchange for prints/CD/DVD/Blu-Ray/Thumb Drive/Hard Drive, etc., may be negotiated (usually not for payment), but I will retain the negatives and the copyright.
